Building on the enormous success of the Remediation Technologies Symposium (RemTech), the Environmental Services Association of Alberta (ESAA) is pleased to announce the 2nd Annual Water Technologies Symposium (WaterTECH 2009). WaterTECH 2009 will be the premier water technology transfer event for environmental professionals.

ESAA invites you to submit technical abstracts focused, but not limited to, the following areas:

- Water Resources and Water Quality
- Groundwater-Surface Water Interaction
- Groundwater and Surface Water Management
- Watershed Modelling, Planning, and Management
- Data Collection, Monitoring, and Testing
- Ecohydrology
- Protection and Sustainable Management of Water Resources
- Emerging Contaminants
- Disaster Planning
- Facility Operations, Industrial Issues, and Technologies
- Industrial and Municipal Wastewater Treatment
- Coal-bed Methane Development
- Deep Well Injection
- Beneficial Uses of Produced Water
- Water Conservation and Re-use
- Integrated Research
- Nanotechnology Applications
- Regulatory Issues, Including Saline versus Non-Saline Water

The preliminary selection of presentations will be based on submitted abstracts and reviewed by a panel of peers.

Abstracts should be no more than 500 words (not including bio), should include a presenter biography, and must be received by Friday, December 12, 2008.

Please send submissions to Joe Chowanec via e-mail to: abstracts@esaa-events.com

Notification of acceptance will be given by January 30, 2009. Full presentations must be submitted by April 10, 2009.
